

Welcome to a One-day Course In Miracles Gathering in London with David Hoffmeister, Messenger of Peace!

Watch video: Guiding Me Home

“Love is the way I walk in gratitude. I share and extend and demonstrate the living Christ in thought, word, emotion, and action. I enjoy shining the Love of God and have traveled in 22 countries and spoken at hundreds of gatherings around the world for the last 18 years. Living a simple life of trust and fully supported by the Holy Spirit, I constantly experience Divine Providence. The gatherings are open discussions and questions and comments from everyone attending are always welcomed.

Enlightenment, being wholly Present, is an experience which has no exceptions and no contradictions. As we join together in the purpose of forgiveness and invite the Spirit to guide us, the experience is revealed. All self-concept attachments are exposed in Light and gently released as they are no longer valued or protected. Spirit rests in joyful and tranquil contentment, and everything is allowed. There is nothing which remains in awareness but acceptance. Identifying with Spirit brings an end to separate desires.

Blessings of Forever Love,
